PRESENTS

THE CARDINAL

THE SENIOR YEARBOOK

OF

1950

DEDICATION

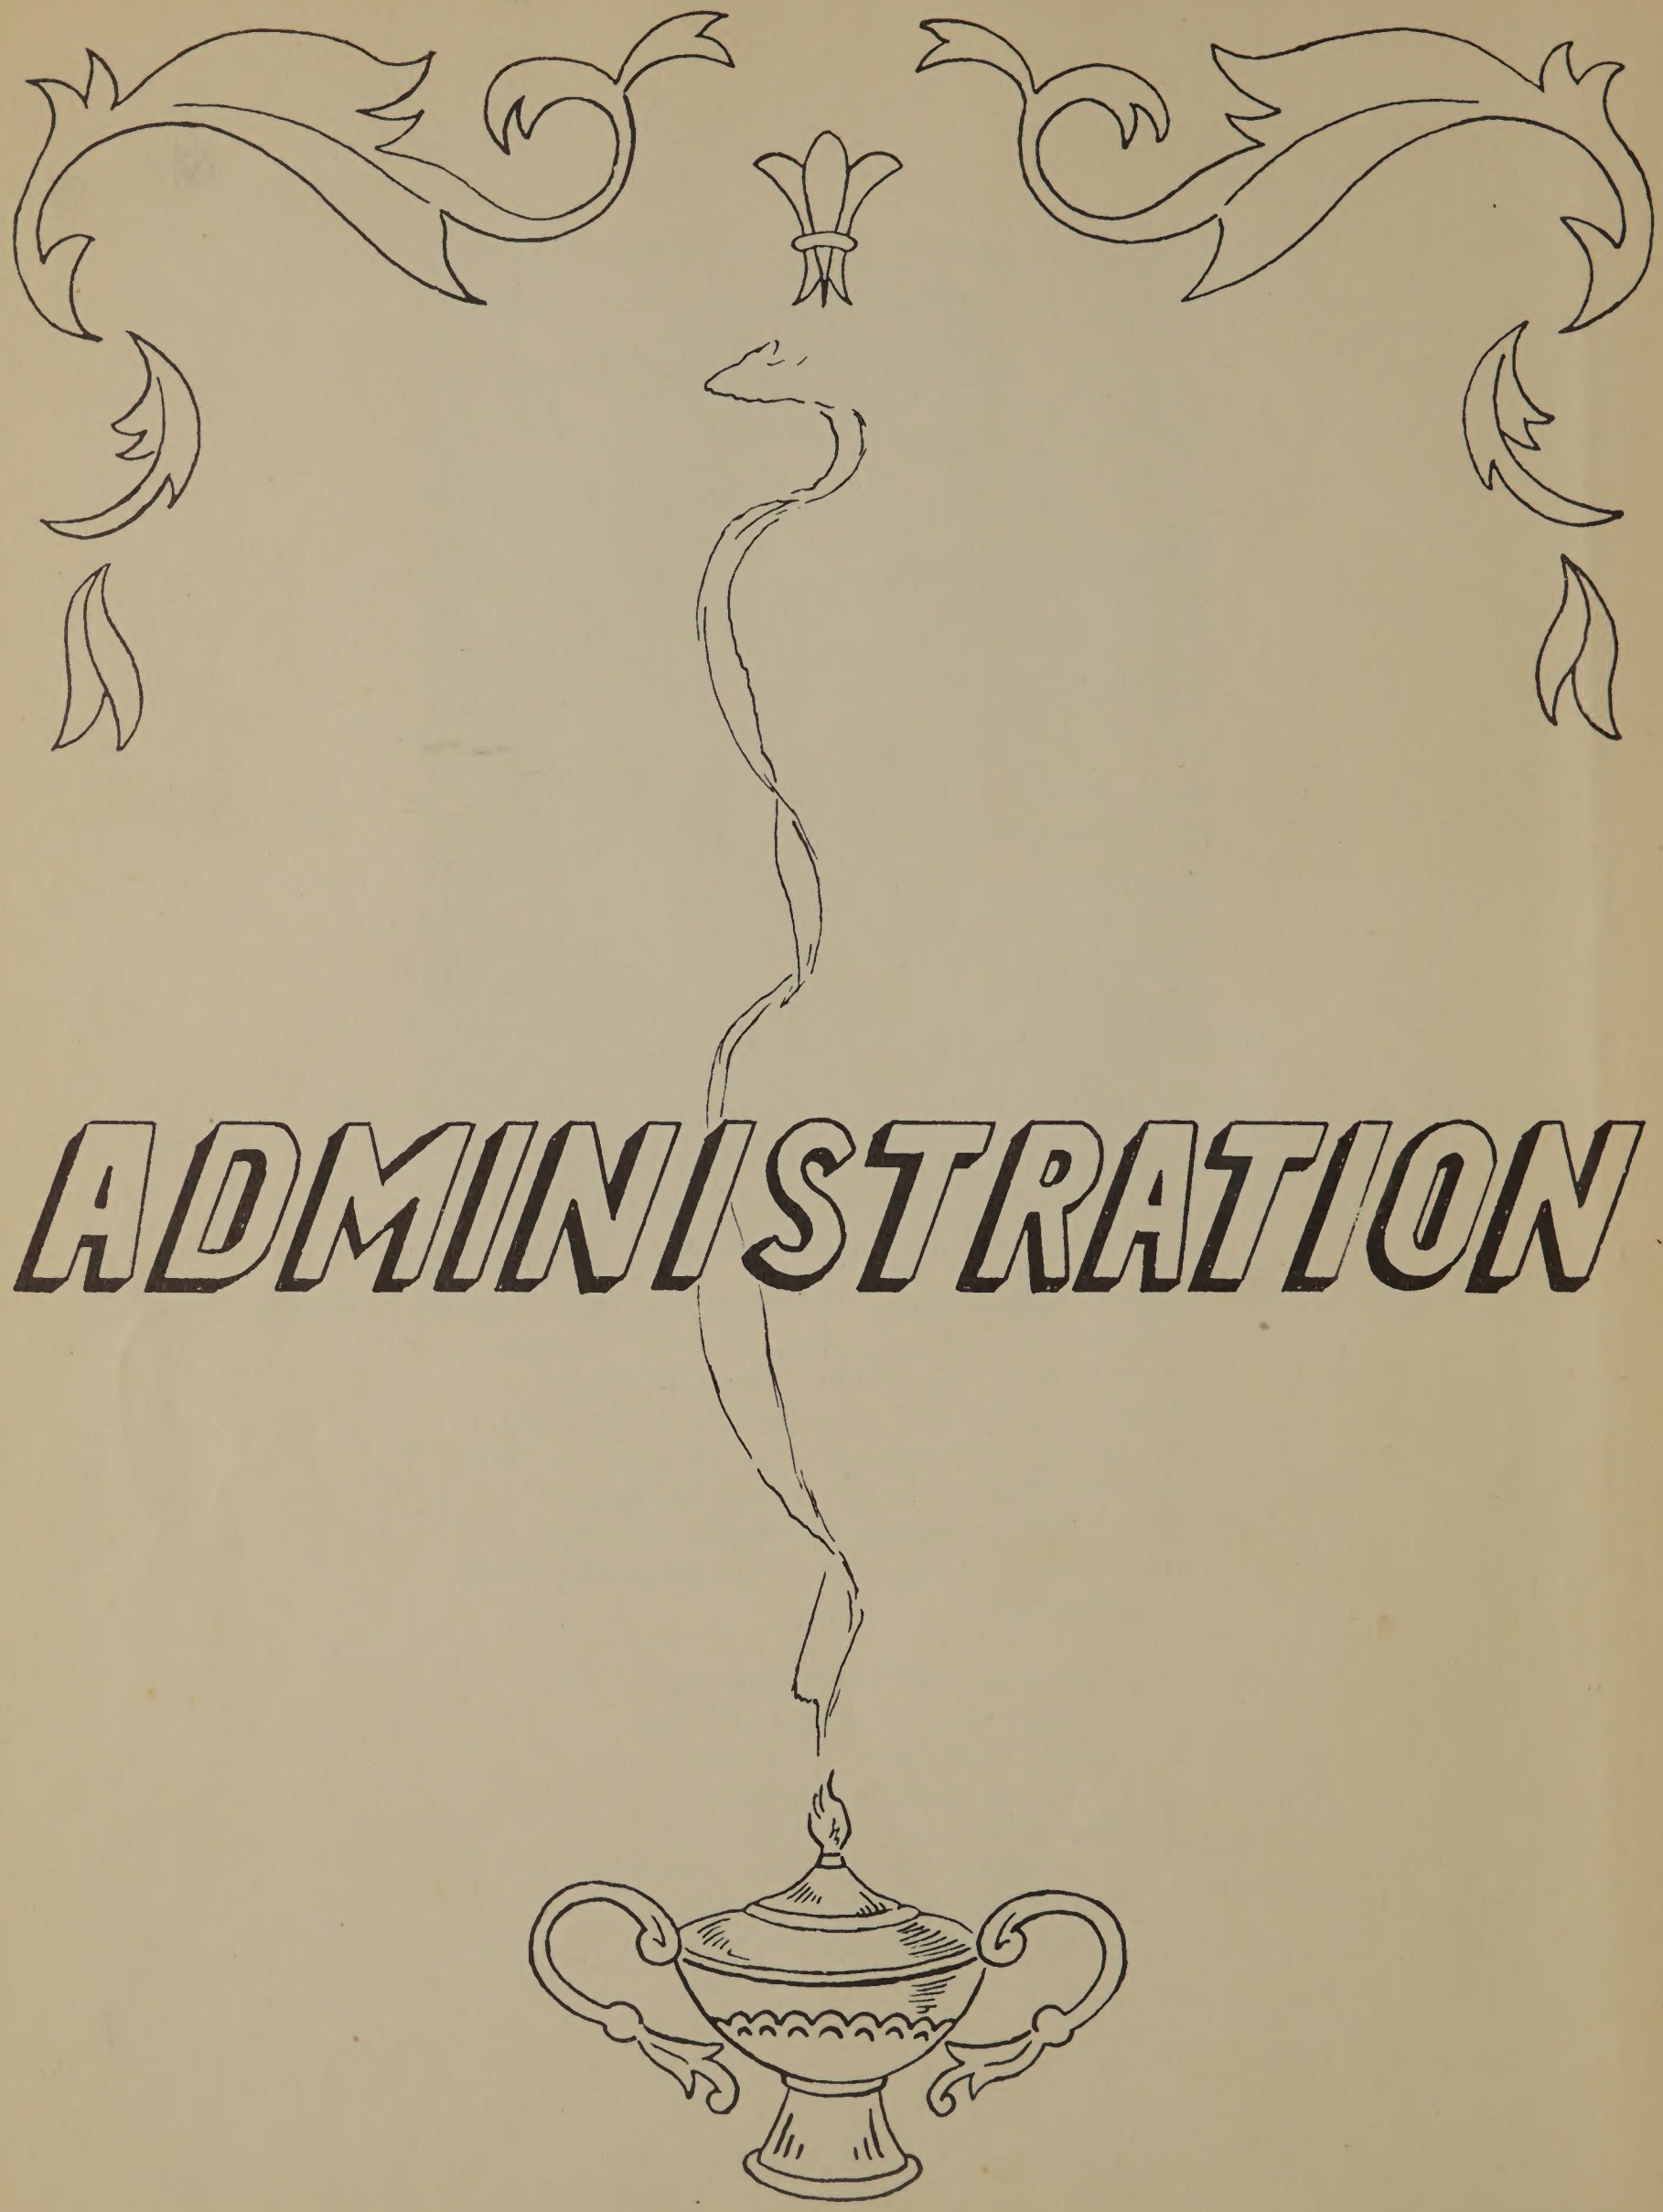

To the memory of Donna Rae Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham of Flat Rock, the Senior Class of Flat Rock High School, respectfully dedicates this book. She was born on October 2, 1942, and departed from our midst February 3, 1950. At the time of her death she was seven years of age and a second grade pupil in this school.

Her baby-feet had journeyed
Such a little distance here,
They could have found no briars
In the path to interfere;
The little cross she carried
Could not weary her, we know,
For it lay as lightly on her
As a shadow on the snow.

Class History

On a beautiful September day in 1938, four pupils started their school days at the Flat Rock School, with Maurine Boger Cunningham as their teacher. Only two of these, Janet Blades and Marilyn Robertson, are in this year's graduating class.

The next year some new pupils, Alice Benson, Martha Shoaf, and Lee Roy Gravely, came from the Norristown School and Camille Jenkins Williams was the teacher. We were all promoted to the third grade and there were no changes in the class roll.

As the summer vacation drew to a close, we entered our fourth year of school, having a new teacher, Frances Cochran. Marilyn Bruner came from Princeton, Indiana, to join our troop. We had a scrap drive and made $8 and had a party celebrating the success of the drive. We also organized a safety club.

Quite a lot of talk began to circulate during the next summer vacation of more pupils being added to the class from the Lewis Creek School. So, that fall three girls, Mary Belle Conover, Winifred Weinantz, and Darlene Ponsler, entered our class.

As the school doors were opened in the fall of 1943, a new teacher, Otis Wasson, was there to greet the sixth grade pupils. As the roll was called, we found that one of our classmates, Lee Roy Gravely, had moved to Shelbyville. Also, we had a new classmate, Ruth Mills.

As we started into our seventh grade, we were moved into the assembly with Warren Comstock as teacher during the next two years. Joyce Sweany and Darlene McIntyre came to complete the present class. Of course, we worked hard, as all seventh graders do, and tried to dress and act like the pupils of the upper-classes.

We entered the eighth grade with one purpose in mind--to receive our eighth grade diplomas. We met at Shelbyville to have our graduation pictures taken and were taken to a movie by Mr. Comstock.

In the fall of 1946, we entered our most sought-after year in school-- our first year in high school. Of course, we thought we were very important, but were soon put in our places by the dignified Seniors. We were not initiated by the Seniors until the last days of that year; thus, we dreaded it the whole year through. One of the events of that year was entertaining our mothers with a style show and play. This was put on by the Home Economics Class, under the direction of Mrs. John Davis.

During our Sophomore Year we began having "brainstorms." We decided that we wanted to take a trip to Washington, D. C. at the end of our Senior Year. To begin making money, we gave a play, "Leave it to the Girls." Mrs. Linke, our class sponsor, was the director of the play.

Lee Roy came back to Flat Rock at the beginning of our Junior Year, in time to help carry coke cases. We had a magazine drive, sold stationery, and sold concessions at noon and at ball games. We attended the Legislature at Indianapolis and also took the Seniors on a tour of the southern part of the state for our reception.

Our money making projects this year have been a Halloween Carnival, a rummage sale, and a food sale, which have helped to make possible our trip to Washington, D. C. in April.

As three of our classmates, Darlene McIntyre, Janet Blades, and Marilyn Robertson, were yell leaders and Lee Roy was a member of the basketball team, they received their sweaters with the proper stripes from the school. Lee Roy's sweater also has a star as he was captain of the team this year.

The name of our class play is "Aunt Hetty Hits Her Stride," and the cast of characters is as follows:

Martha Shoaf - - - - - -	Miss Hetty Hoyle (Aunt Hetty)
Janet Blades - - - - - - -	Professor Leander Tate
Marilyn Bruner - - - - -	Olivia Tate
Darlene Ponsler - - - - -	Thelma Tate
Ruth Mills - - - - - - -	Melba
Winifred Weinantz - - - -	Kim Douglas
Mary Belle Conover - - -	Rosaleen Dombie
Marilyn Robertson - - - -	Dr. Carrie Ditto
Joyce Sweany - - - - - -	Bonnie Starr
Lee Roy Gravely - - - - -	Durward Douglas
	Douglas Dombie
Alice Benson - - - - - -	Foster Frost
Darlene McIntyre - - - - -	Jim Gordon

Our class colors are nile green and white and our class flower is the American Beauty Rose. Our motto is, "Onward."

And so, when we march down the aisle to receive our high school diplomas on May 9, 1950, we wish to show our appreciation with this poem:

We wish to thank our mothers and dads
For all the trials and troubles they've had
In sending us these twelve years to school
And making us abide by The Golden Rule.
And to our teachers, who most kind have been,
We give heart-felt thanks from beginning to end.

Class Prophecy

As I gaze into my crystal ball at last
To foresee the future of the 1950 Class,
I see Lee Roy Gravely,
And I'm proud to relate,
Has become the Governor of our state.

Then there's Allie Lou Benson
It's plain to be seen
Went to Hollywood
And became a movie queen.

Well, I do believe I see
Mary Belle Conover, age 33
A pretty blond secretary
Typing away from A to Z.

I see Darlene Ponsler
On the Eastern shore
A very good model
In a big department store.

Winifred Lee Weinantz
I believe I see
A good stenographer
As busy as can be.

There is Janet Blades
I'm sure I can see
Her teaching school
In sunny Tennessee.

That must be Ruth Mills.
Her time she did not fiddle
She's now a wonderful nurse
In a large hospital.

Well, here comes Marilyn Bruner
In her hand is a gun
She's now a woman detective
But still has lots of fun.

I believe there's Joyce Sweany
Oh me! Oh my!
A capable stewardess
Flying high in the sky.

I can see Darlene McIntyre
Oh! what a voice
And on the radio
She's the people's choice.

Why there's Martha Shoaf
And never in my life
Have I seen such a good cook
And a pretty housewife.

And now behold! a very large ranch
Out where the cowboys roam.
There's Marilyn Robertson, I see very plain
And she's calling it "Home Sweet Home."
My crystal ball is growing dim--Oh my! Oh me!
This is the end of my prophecy.

Senior Class Will of 1950

We, the class of 1950, of Flat Rock High School, of the City of Flat Rock, State of Indiana, being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, in the manner in which you may now read:

We, the Senior Class, do hereby will and bequeath to Dick Wertz a record of Norma Mount singing "Have I Told You Lately That I Love You?"

We, the Seniors, leave to Doug Endicott a bench at the end of "Tombstone Avenue" to sit on while saying goodby to Janet Girton.

We, the Senior Class, respectfully will Richard Wetzel to Thelma Hill.

We, Joyce Sweany and Alice Benson, do hereby will and bequeath our ability to put our hands in steaming hot water under a Health Supervisor's eagle eye to the Junior girls.

I, Alice Benson, leave my front seat in the assembly to Marilyn Davis so she can get a better look at Mr. Wade.

I, Martha Shoaf, being tired of my present compact, will it to June Pond, as we have decided that her mirror is just about worn out.

We, Marilyn Robertson and Janet Blades, will our great acting ability to Doris Burns and Wendell Fleenor.

I, Mary Belle Conover, hereby will and bequeath my ability to scrape dishes to the Juniors.

I, Ruth Mills, do hereby reserve for Altamae and Wilkie a back seat in all the buses going to ball games away from Flat Rock.

I, Winifred Weinantz, leave to Marvin Burk my naturally curly hair.

I, Lee Roy Gravely, will my beautiful green Chevie with all its pick-up to Calvin Linke.

I, Martha Shoaf, will my horse, Goldie, to Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Hiatt, and Mrs. McNamara, to help them get to school when the roads are slick.

I, Marilyn Robertson, will and bequeath to Sharon Thurston my back seat in the assembly so she will not have to twist her neck to keep her eye on Jerry Vawter.

I, Darlene Ponsler, hereby will to anyone who wants a higher speed, my typing ability to type 70 words a minute.

I, Darlene McIntyre, will my nerves to Mr. Wetzel, because if he has another class like this one, he is going to need them.

I, Marilyn Bruner, will my jolly disposition to Forrest Wayne Talkington.

I, Janet Blades, will to Mr. Wetzel, my pipe which I used in the class play, as I am sure he would enjoy it more than I.

I, Lee Roy Gravely, leave my ability to play basketball to Morris Brown.

I, Alice Benson, leave my class play wig to Mr. Gorrell to use.

The Scholarship Plaque

Each year a Senior's name is placed on the scholarship plaque kept on the top shelf in our library. Numerical values are given to the grades that are recorded in the office and the Senior with the most points and the most credits is honored by having his or her name engraved on the plaque. The names on the plaque are:

Winner, 1950
DARLENE PONSLER

DeVone McQueen 1938
Loreine Payne 1939
Laura Scott 1940
Velta Young 1941
Ella Mae Parrish 1942

Marilyn Gray 1947
Thomas Endicott 1948
Mildred Burns 1949
Darlene Ponsler 1950

Typing Awards

The students of the Typing Classes are awarded pins each year for their best speed record made during the year. The awards are made by Mrs. Comstock, the Typing teacher, on the last day of school. Those students who attain a speed of 40-49 receive silver pins engraved with "40 words per minute"; and those who attain 50 or better receive gold pins, with the proper speed engraved on them, and so forth. Students receiving pins this year are:

School's Champion Typist
DARLENE McINTYRE
Speed, 77

70 words per minute--Darlene McIntyre, Darlene Ponsler, Marilyn Bruner.

60 words per minute--Alice Benson, Janet Blades, Marilyn Robertson, Joyce Sweany, Winifred Weinantz.

50 words per minute--Martha Shoaf, Mary Conover, Lee Roy Gravely, Ruth Mills, Elsie Rush, Miriam Young.

40 words per minute--Bruce Thompson, Jerry Vawter.

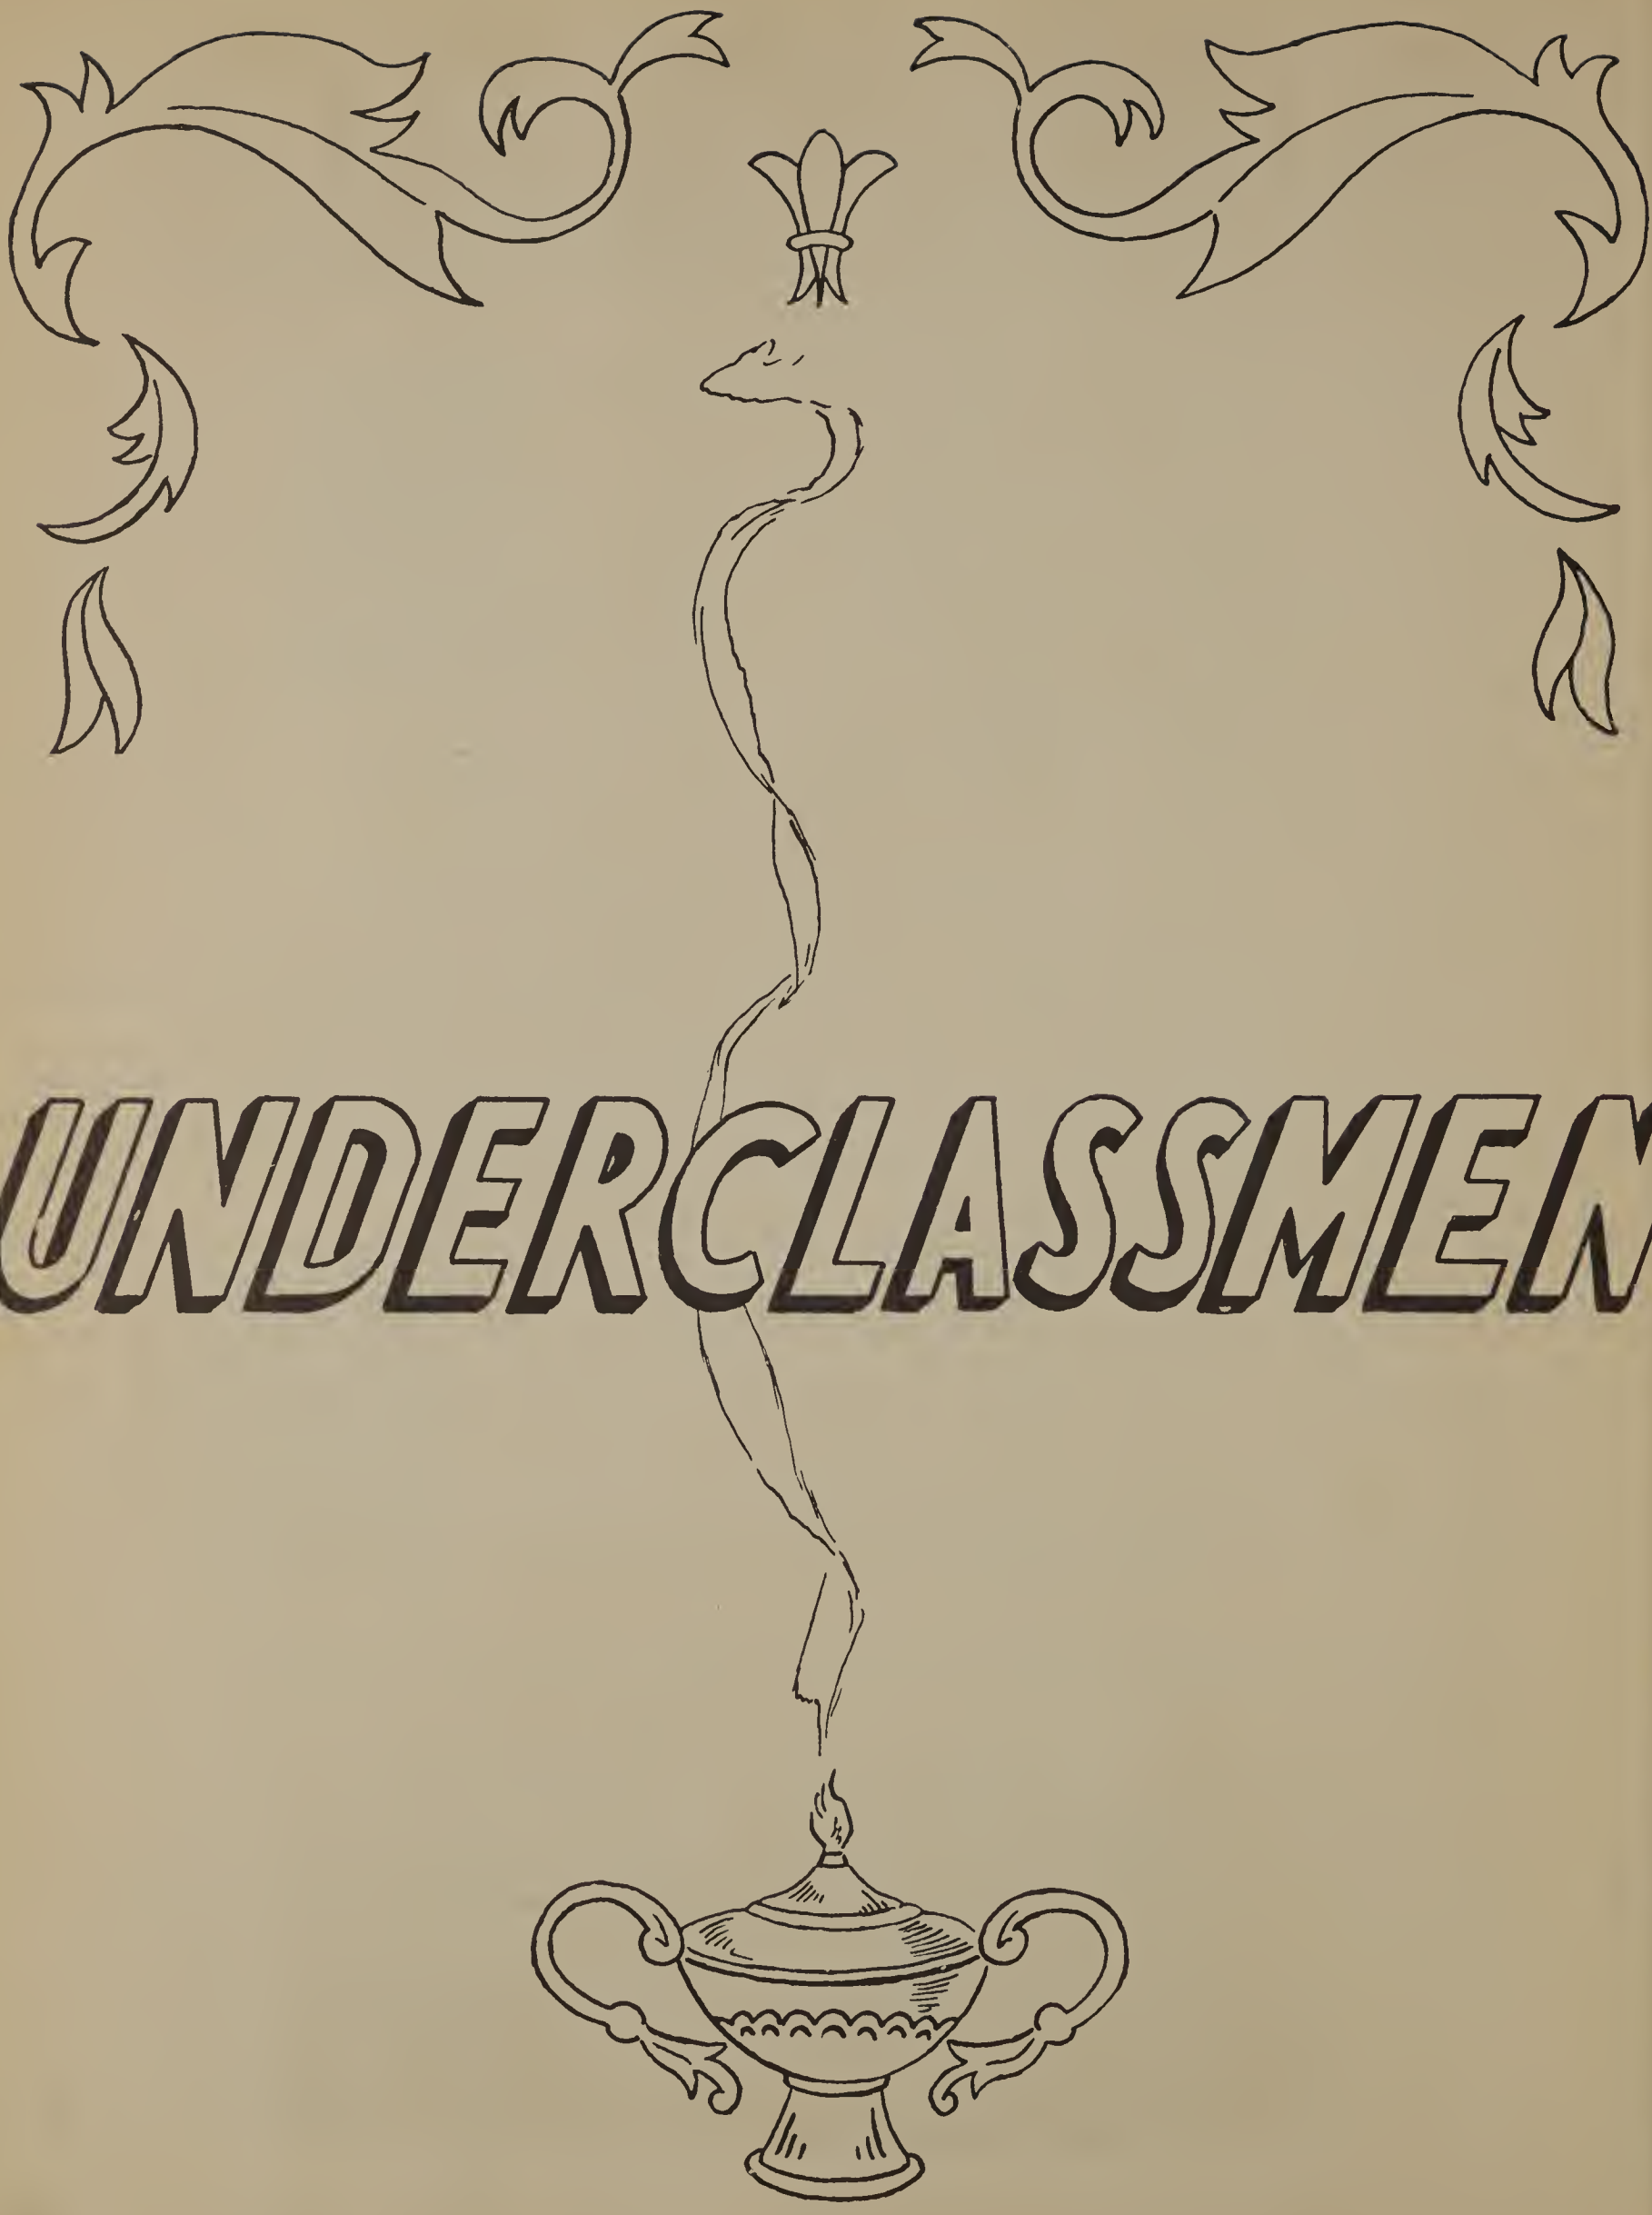

Guidance Conference For Business Students

The Guidance Conference sponsored by Indiana University for business students of Shelby County was held at Waldron High School on February 3, 1950. The Juniors and Seniors with Mrs. Rita Comstock represented Flat Rock. The program was planned and presented by Professor H. G. Enterline of Indiana University. The highlight of the program was a high speed typing demonstration by Miss Mary Pejunas of Cleveland, Ohio, on the electric typewriter. Her speed was 144 words per minute. The meeting closed with remarks by Mr. Thomas Fogarty, County Superintendent of Schools.

Little Cards

We are very proud of our grade team this year; they have won 24 out of 25 games and climaxed their successful season by winning the Shelby County Grade Tournament. The first part of the tournament was played at Flat Rock and Morristown, and the finals were played at Waldron. The Little Cards won 2 games at Flat Rock, Hendricks 22-19 and Waldron 32-19. In the finals they defeated Union 37-34 and Addison 21-18.

The trophy was presented to the team on February 17 by Mr. Wetzel, and a short program was held in their honor. The next day they won an invitational trournament at Hope by defeating Adams, St. Paul and Hope.

CHEERLEADERS: Judy Fleener
Becky Davis
Shirley Tungate

Basketball Awards

A Senior basketball sweater was awarded to Lee Roy Gravely by Coach Gorrell, and Marilyn Robertson, Darlene McIntyre, and Janet Blades received yell sweaters.

The Free Throw Award, given to the basketball player who makes the largest number of free throws during the season, was awarded to Bruce Thompson who sank a total of 30 free throws.

The Sportsman Award each is awarded to the varsity player who in basketball competition best fulfills the following qualities:
(1) Playing Ability, (2) Co-operation, (3) Mental attitude, (4) Sportsmanship, (5) Scholarship, (6) Patience, (7) Enthusiasm, (8) Clean Language, (9) Leadership. The recipient this year is Lee Roy Gravely.

Track Awards

Flat Rock took part in the Shelby County Track Meet held at Rushville and placed 6th in the competition. Eight boys entered in the competition, one of which placed in the meet, Donald Faulconer. He placed 2nd in the 440 yard dash for which he received a letter with 2 bars.

Girls' Basketball Tourney

The Flat Rock girls were watching the boys playing off an intramural tourney one noon and they decided to have a tourney too. Mrs. Hiatt, the Physical Education teacher, believing it to be a good idea, gave her consent. The coaches of the teams were chosen from the Senior girls. They were Darlene McIntyre, Marilyn Robertson, Martha Shoaf, and Joyce Sweany. Of course, to begin with, each individual team was sure they were going to win and that the other teams did not stand a chance. The team coached by Darlene McIntyre won the championship while the "runner up" team was Marilyn Robertson's. Sweany and Shoaf were the losers.

ACTIVITIES

Chorus

The High School Chorus and the chorus of the seventh and eighth grades, under the direction of Mrs. Faybelle Linke, boast a membership of 40 students. This group presented a skit for the Halloween Carnival, and also the school's Christmas program. Each year the choruses participate in the Shelby County Music Festival, held in April, and present the music at the baccalaureate service.

Band

The Flat Rock School Band has eighteen members. They participate in the Shelby County Music Festival in April, and play for the commencement exercises of our school in May. The band meets for practice with Mr. Amos, the director, each Friday. Several of these students are also members of the Farm Bureau Band.

Hallowe'en Carnival

On October 31, 1949, the school had a Halloween Carnival. As this was something new, all the boys and girls helped to get ready for the big night and the profit was divided among the high school classes.

Booths were placed around the assembly for the Fish Pond, "The Cardinal" Booth, Dart Throw, and the Fortune Teller, who was Darlene McIntyre. At the rear of the assembly was an improvised dining room where dinner was served. This was one of the big events of the evening. The food was prepared by the mothers of the Seniors and served by girls from the four high school classes.

A masquerade parade was held in the assembly and prizes were given to the funniest, ugliest, and prettiest.

At nine o'clock everyone went to the gymnasium where approximately 25 pies and cakes were awarded in the Cake Walk. The Melody Makers of Shelbyville provided the music for the Cake Walk and the Grand Finale.

The high school chorus presented a skit entitled "The Fifth-Avenue Hillbillies." The skit was written by Mrs. Faybelle Linke and Joyce Sweany.

Everyone had a pleasant evening and the Halloween Carnival was considered a big success.

Junior and Senior Reception

"Let's Go Maying" was all that was heard from the Juniors of 1948-49, as they prepared for their trip to Spring Mill State Park, Wyandotte Cave, and Louisville, Kentucky. Everyone accepted the invitations that were issued and on the morning of May 6, 1949, we were ready to leave for our excursion. We reached Spring Mill State Park about 9:30 a. m. and had brunch. After eating everyone wanted to see the park so we lingered there until about 11:00 a. m. We drove to Wyandotte Cave and took a two-hour trip through the cave with a guide. After our tour through the cave we came back to the hotel and had a late lunch. Then we headed for Louisville. Upon our arrival in Louisville we had a fried chicken dinner at the Brown Hotel. Then we went to Loew's Theater and saw "Portrait of Jennie." At 11: p. m. we started home--a very tired group but a very happy one!

Office Secretary

A member of the Senior Class who is an outstanding commercial student is chosen each year to be the office secretary. This year Joyce Sweany received the appointment. Joyce's job has been a big one, but she has performed it very efficiently.

Cafeteria

The Flat Rock School Cafeteria has been in operation for 23 years. It serves on an average of 150 students and teachers per day. The serving is done in approximately 30 minutes. The menus are prepared by the Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Hiatt.

The cooks are the same as last year, Mamie Wade and Pearl McClintic. Mrs. McClintic has been cooking for the school for 11 years and Mrs. Wade, 5 years. We enjoy their laughter as well as their good food.
